

Hold Your Horses (adults, 14+)

Hold Your Horses is a dance concert about the desire to hold on. De Dansers tell their story with twelve hands, including the accompanying bodies, and a few guitars. We see hands grasping, mistaking, touching, taking off, falling down and plucking guitar strings. We see people, sometimes close to each other, sometimes endlessly far away. We don't see the whimsical world that we can't get a grip on. We do feel it slip through our fingers.

Hold Your Horses has a spectacular, acrobatic movement language, and never loses its human sensitivity. As one body, the dancers move in a continuous flow, propelled by Guy Corneille's live music.

Hold Your Horses (adults, 14+) is available as a location performance and as a theater performance for the small- and middle theater. Get in contact for more information.

"As always in the irresistible dance concerts by De Dansers from Utrecht, the atmosphere starts out playful and casual. Gradually a cry for help creeps in, the fear of losing grip."

"In Hold Your Horses we meet a pleasantly mixed cast, who create a playful and relaxed atmosphere, but at the same time work with focus and collaborate accurately."
